

Call for applications for the position of Secretary General of the Federation of Arab Scientific Research Councils

The Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research (Directorate General of Scientific Research) brings to your kind attention that the Federation of Arab Scientific Research Councils is launching a call for applications for the position of a Secretary General for a three-year period that is renewable.

The Secretary General will be chosen among arab reknowned researchers that are competent and productive in their respective field and who have a long experience in the practice and management of scientific research.

The candidate for this position must belong to an arabic research entity and be proficient in english, written and oral, in addition to his administrative experience and his prospective vision for the development of the Federation's missions.

Attached are the criteria required for the selection of the Secretary General.

Candidates interested in applying, are required to send their application to the Directorate General of Scientific Research (CV, copy of diplomas, list of scientific publications, etc.), not later than March 05, 2022, through their affiliation.